Anything of value (e.g., money, drugs, food, shelter, rent, or higher status in a gang or group)

- OR -

a promise of anything of value is given to a person by any means in exchange for any type of sexual activity.

A third party may or may not be involved.

Who are the traffickers?

Traffickers can be anyone

Range from large scale national and international crime networks to small scale individuals recruiting individuals

Pimps, brothel owners, salon owners

Neighbors, friends, "boyfriends", "girlfriends", family members

Mapping the Demand:
Sex Buyers in the State of Minnesota 2017

- Sex buyers are predominantly middle-aged, white, married men from across the state of Minnesota.
- Many buyers seek young adult victims, with some willing to buy sex from a minor. Some sex buyers specifically seek out minors.
- Most sex buyers travel during the workday between 30-60 miles to buy sex. Some will travel farther to purchase minors or individuals in specialty market-segments.
- Buyers also purchase sex during business trips, bachelor parties, and hunting and fishing trips.

Martin, et al, Urban Research and Outreach-Engagement Center (UROC), U of M

Potential Signs of Sex Trafficking

- Person has an abrupt change in attire, behavior, or relationships
- The presence of an older “boyfriend” or “girlfriend”
- Travel with an older male/female who is not a guardian
- Sudden presence of expensive material possessions
- Youth lacks control over his/her schedule, money, and/or proof of identification
- Signs of physical trauma, including bruises, cuts, burns, and/or scars
- Lying about age, where they've been, who they've been with, etc.

What is a Trauma-Coerced Attachment?

Powerful psychological manipulation by traffickers - Victims who believe they are in love with their trafficker are easier to manipulate and control.

Daychak & Raghavan 2019, Journal of Human Trafficking

Why don't victims leave?

Fear

- Actual or threatened abuse/sexual assault/violence to self, family, friends
- Making an “example” of another victim
- Threat of criminal prosecution or deportation
- Blackmail

Dependency

- Withholding money or identity documents
- Only source of housing, food, clothes
- Posing as “friend/boyfriend/concerned relative” to induce guilt and feeling indebted
- Causing or exploiting pregnancy, chemical dependency, etc.
- Isolation from support networks, service providers, others

Psychological Factors

- “I agreed to it so it's not illegal”
- “This is my choice”
- “I've done too much to go back to a normal life”
- Mind normalizes situation as defense mechanism

Minnesota's Child Protection Response to Human Trafficking and Exploitation

Diagram illustrating the relationship between Child Sex Trafficking, Sex Abuse, and Child Abuse and Neglect, leading to Investigation (24 hour response).

The Basics

- Sex trafficking of a child is a mandated report in Minnesota, even if the alleged trafficker is a non-caregiver/ household member. When in doubt, report.
- Sex trafficking requires three parts:
 - ACTOR: Third party trafficker (not the buyer or victim)
 - ACTION: Receiving, recruiting harboring, providing, or obtaining; or profiting
 - ACT: Aid in the prostitution of an individual
- Reports of sexual exploitation (without a third party) or labor trafficking should be referred to voluntary child welfare services through the county or tribal agency.
- Law enforcement and county or tribal child welfare agencies must promptly cross report.
